

Adult Christian Learning Ministry

Fall '17 Offerings

Tuesday Evening Bible Study

Join us on Tuesdays for a 90 minute Bible class. We will review the passages of the Scriptures that were read the previous Sunday. Materials will be provided at the meetings.

October 10th, October 17th, and October 24th at 7:30 pm

Movie Night

To mark the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's life we will show the highly acclaimed PBS documentary Martin Luther. In the discussion led by Michael Moynihan we will discuss the situation in Europe that led to his protests. Did he really mean to cause a rift in Christendom? How did his thoughts and actions encourage the creation of Protestantism?

November 14th at 7:30 pm

Preparing the Way for the Messiah

Jeffrey, our organist and choirmaster, will lead a discussion and demonstration of music that we hear during Advent.

November 29th at 7:30 pm

Last Things

Janet Kornfeld, a lawyer, will outline for us the additional documents that we need to have to help our families and ourselves plan for our final days.

December 3rd at 9 am

Courageous Conversations

The book for this season's discussion is On Tyranny, Twenty Lessons from the Twentieth Century by Timothy Snyder. We thought WWII ended the possibility of tyrannical governments, yet is our world still threatened by them? This short book outlines the various forms of tyranny and gives suggestions as to what we, as good citizens, can do to combat this form of government.

December, 12th at 7:30 pm
