

THE BY-LAWS OF THE PARISH OF CHRIST THE REDEEMER
LOCATED IN THE TOWN OF PELHAM, COUNTY OF WESTCHESTER,
STATE OF NEW YORK

Adopted by the Vestry on the 26th day of June, 2017.

NAME

The name of the corporation is THE RECTOR, CHURCHWARDENS AND VESTRYMEN OF THE PARISH OF CHRIST THE REDEEMER AT PELHAM.

ARTICLE I

THE ARMS AND THE SEAL

THE ARMS

The Arms of Christ Church were those of the Pell Family. The ermine shield had a canton in the upper left bearing a pelican wounding herself. (They were canting arms or, a pun on Pell.) The pelican “in her piety” is a symbol of the Redeemer. Thus the new Arms remember both backgrounds, the ermine of the Pells, and the “pelican in her piety” of the Redeemer. The shift from a canton to a central circle marks the change in dedicatory emphasis.

ARMS: Ermine a huerte charged with a pelican in her piety proper.

THE SEAL

The Seal of THE PARISH OF CHRIST THE REDEEMER at Pelham, New York, is in the form of a “visica pescis”, a conventional form of the ancient Christian symbol, the fish, minus the fins and tail. In the center there appears a shield which bears the arms of the Pell family on which there is a pelican “vulning” (wounding) herself, so the blood flows. The crest is the “rebus” representing the word Bolton, being composed of a “tun”, or barrel, pierced by an arrow, or “bolt”. Below is a “torse”, or headband, used under the helmet in the Crusades. Within the border of the seal is the inscription “Seal of THE PARISH OF CHRIST THE REDEEMER.” At the shield’s right there appears a font and at the shield’s left, the chalice, and at the base, the Holy Scriptures.

ARTICLE II

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the annual meeting and election or special meeting. The notice of the annual meeting and election shall also specify the number, names, and terms of office of each Warden and those Vestry members whose terms of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and each office for which a candidate is to be then elected. The notice of a special meeting shall specify the matter or question to be brought before such meeting and no matter or question not specified in such notice shall be acted upon at such meeting.
